

PGA Spring Meeting April 10-12, 2026

Let's see who really has the fan base in College Football. I'm thinking it's the Nittany Lions of Penn State. Or will it be the Prophets from O.H. I don't know. Or the not so scary Seminoles of Florida State. How about those Laughing Illini from Illinois? Or the Haze and Blue of Michigan?

The only way to see is to be at the Pennsylvania Grotto Association Spring meeting in State College Pa. from April 10-12, 2026.
